

Here's the Question

מִי־יֵשְׁכֹן בְּהַר קֹדֶשְׁךָ:
הוֹלֵךְ תָּמִים וּפְעֵל צֶדֶק יִדְבֵּר אֱמֶת בְּלִבָּהּ

Mi Yishkon b'har kodshecha

Holechet tamim u'fo-elet tzedek; doveret emet bilvava

Question: Who will dwell upon Your holy mountain; who will live in Your light?

Answer: Whoever walks in simplicity and integrity; whoever makes justice; whoever speaks the truth that is in her heart. (Psalm 15:1-2)

Psalm 15 asks a question and then searches for an answer. Each of us must find our own answer to this question. The words of the chant provide my answer:

Who will dwell upon Your holy mountain; who will live in Your light? (2X)

When I walk in whole-hearted simplicity; when I do what's right;

When I speak the truth, speak the truth in my heart....

I Am There!

Who will dwell upon Your holy mountain; who will live in Your light? (2X)

When I sit down in equanimity; when I turn towards the Light;

When my heart is full, when my heart is filled with your love....

I Am There!

Who will dwell upon Your holy mountain; who will live in Your light? (2X)

When I lie down in vulnerability; when I lay my blame aside;

When I love the world, when I love the world as it is....

I Am There!

Who will dwell upon Your holy mountain; who will live in Your light? (2X)

Holechet tamim, Holechet tamim u'fo-elet tzedek; doveret emet, emet bilvava....

I Am There!

Who will dwell upon Your holy mountain; who will live in Your light? (2X)

I Am There!
